

In loving Memory . . .

Marion Drusilla Kerr was born October 7, 1920 in Kenmare to Robert and Martha (Holmes) Kerr. She was raised in Fairdale and attended school there.

She married Milton Olson December 22, 1946 in Fairdale. Marion taught at area elementary schools for many years, retiring from Lansford.

During their retirement years, they lived at Lake Metigoshe. In recent years, they lived in Minot to be near their children. Milton died February 6, 1996.

Marion attended Lynch Immanuel Lutheran Church, rural Glenburn, and was active in the Order of Eastern Star in both Granville and Lansford. Marion had a special love of cats, crocheting and playing bingo. Marion also loved fishing from the pontoon, driving the golf cart for Milton and having a cup of coffee looking at the lake.
