

Remembering the life of Lyle ~

Lyle Gene Handeland was born November 10, 1934 in Lansford to Theodore and Alma (Wiese) Handeland. He was raised on the family farm and attended school at Mount Rose and Lansford Schools. He took over the operation of the family farm, located in Mount Rose Township of Bottineau County, in 1963. During the winter months of the 1960s, he worked on the construction of area missile sites for the U.S. Air Force.

Lyle married Joyce Coder November 8, 1963 in Minot. He took great pride in his farming and ranching operation until 1999, when he retired.

Lyle was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Lansford. He loved camping, bowling, fishing, and spending time with his loving wife, children and grandchildren.

Lyle took great pride in his farming and ranching operation located in Mount Rose Township of Bottineau County
