September 12, 1935 – November 4, 2009

Seventy-four years, one month, twenty-two days

MOHALL - Marlene Joyce Newgard, 74, Mohall; died Wednesday, November 4, 2009, at a Minot hospital.

She was born September 12, 1935 in Maxbass to Lyle and Katherine (Leding) Jensen. Marlene was raised in Maxbass, graduating from Maxbass High School in 1953. She was the oldest of four children. When Marlene was six, her father passed away of heart complications and she was left to help her mother raise her and her three brothers. They lived on the family farm in Maxbass. When Marlene was 14, her mother married Frederick James Weber who became her loving father.

Marlene taught at a country school in the Norma area for two years. She graduated from Beautician College in Fargo, and went to work in Rugby. It was there that she met Dennis Newgard. On April 22, 1961, they were married in Rugby. They lived in Rugby and Maxbass before settling in Mohall where they would raise their family.

Marlene was a member of United Methodist Church, Mohall. Marlene enjoyed making lefse, baking buns, canning, reading and working crossword and jigsaw puzzles.
