

In Loving Memory . . .

Arlene Gloria Bennes was born October 18, 1932 in Harlow, to Burton and Olga (Loken) Bennes. As a young girl, she played the guitar and sang while her father played the violin. The family moved to Brinsmade and Gloria graduated from Leeds High School in 1950. She moved to Devils Lake and worked various jobs there.

Gloria and Clarence Keller were married July 14, 1956 in Great Falls, MT. They lived in Great Falls, Devils Lake and moved to Lansford in 1960. She worked as a bartender in Lansford for many years. Clarence died August 23, 1982.

Gloria was a member of St. John's Catholic Church, Lansford, and the Altar Society. Gloria loved playing pinochle, gardening, bird watching, trips to the casino and was an avid sports fan, especially the Los Angeles Dodgers. She loved spending time with her family and her pets.
